BRYAN ADVOCATES THE SINGLE TERM

Declares Roosevelt Is An Eleventh Hour Convert to Progressive Prin-ciples—Taft Distrusted People.

Denver, Colo, Sept. 17.—One term for presidents and the necessity of select-ing Woodrow Wilson for that office in November was the central thought of campaign addresses delivered by Wm.

J. Bryan in his tour of northern Colorado towns. At Fort Collins he emphasized this point and scored Theodore Roosevelt for asking a third term.

"Roosevelt is an eleventh hour convert to progressive principles," declared Mr.
Bryan, "and should not be trusted until he has proved his sincerity."

He said that Boosevelt never had fought the people's battles, but had

Douglas, Ariz., Sept. 17.-El Tigre was evacuated by the rebels and rethe border toward Juarez, from both by a hundred federals, according to a phone message received by J. W. Maicolmson. The message stated that the rebels carried away bullion valued at $20,000. The rebels left over the hills to the east, and the federals then the east along the Texas border, are moving west toward Juarez following closely the southern side of the international line.

Gen, Trucy Aubert, with a column of federals said to number 1500, arrived yesterday at Oljinaga, according to reports from American army officers at Presidio, Texas, opposite. The rebels, deserted by some of their leaders, was fled to the American side, but still led by Pascual Orozco, fr., are said to be moving west toward Juarez, where a force of federals is stationed. The rebels' retreat to the east and south is cut off, it is said.

"I consider," continued the general, that none of the rebel bands are fighting for a principle except the Socialist element. The others are fighting without a flag and they are merely bandits. Salazar is a Socialist leader, but Rojas is just a brigand and I do not think they will join forces."

Asked as to the next probable move by the rebels operating south of here, Gen. Sanjines expressed the opinion that they would return to the vicinity of the border. This would be more than likely the plan of Salazar's rebels, as that leader is probably desirious of converting the bullion he confiscated at El Tigre into real money. would rule against me in two or three things, but those I do not consider vital to my cause."

So far the trial of the contest has been confined to the argument of the attorneys for the contestee, urging a general demurrer and special exceptions to the petition of the contestant. Judge Douglas has indicated that he would overrule the general demurrer, thereby virtually admitting that the contestant has stated a good cause of action. Aside from sustaining the ruling of the attorneys for the defence made Monday, calling for a cost bond on the part of the contestant, no definite ruling has yet been made by judge Douglas on any of the points involved in the case.

Tuesday morning, in answer to the special exception urged by W. H. Burges, one of the attorneys for judge Harper, to the effect that the contestant should have given the names of the election officers whose lilegal acts he complained of in his petition, judge Douglas stated that he thought the exception was good, and indicated that he would sustain it. That there will be another argument brought against the amending of the petition was evidenced by Mr. Burges, when judge Morris stated that he would make this amendment and add the names of the election officers.

The main defence of the nitorneys for the contestee to the action being prosecuted by judge Morris, is the contention that the names of the viters wherein it is alleged in the petition were illegal voters, should have been given.

London Man Wants Herald

3 North Grove, Highgate, London, Sept. 3, 1912. Editor El Paso Herald:

Enclosed please find money order for subscription and postage for The Herald to be sent to above address. I find your paper of inestimable value in giving me news of Mexican political situation, the news regarding it being of a most scanty description on this side of the pond. Yours truly,

Harold D. Higgins.
